TOWARD A 21ST-CENTURY ETHNOMUSICOLOGY

SOCIETY FOR ETHNOMUSICOLOGY 53RD ANNUAL MEETING PRE-CONFERENCE SYMPOSIUM

Friday, October 24, 2008 | 7am–9pm | CFA Cinema

In four separate panels (China and Taiwan, Indonesia, Africa, and Plenary) featuring Music Department faculty and guest scholars from abroad we attempt to map out issues for an ethnomusicology that functions on a more global scale. We have established videoconferencing links with sites in China, Taiwan, Indonesia, and Africa where students and professionals can gather to participate and interact in real time.

Sponsored by the Wesleyan University Music Department with support from Wesleyan's Edward W. Snowdon Fund, the Office of Academic Affairs, the President's Office, and the George Jackson Memorial Lecture Fund.
